Grading Discussions

Note: The following assumes there is a grade item in the Grade book for the topic discussion.

1. Locate your discussion in the list, click on the drop-down menu control and select "Assess Topic."

Fig. 1

2. Click "Topic Score" under each student's name to see a window with their posts, a grading box, feedback entry box and any rubric associated.

Assess Topic - Bentonville
Publish All Feedback Retract All Feedback Manage Columns
Users Assessments
View By: User V Apply
Search For Q Show Search Options
View Options Show Topic Score ~ Show Topic Score ~ To Publish all grade feedback at one to select all students click "Publish Feed	es and time, s and lback"
Publish Feedback P- Retract Feedback Check to select a students on scree
□Last Name ▲, First Name (make sure all of t students in clas	he Score
jim, student
Topic Score	- / 10 (-%) Not y

Either "Publish" to transfer score to gradebook or "Save Draft" for later publishing. Fig. 3 Student Scoring Window

3. To score within the Discussion topic threads, click on the topic name in the Discussion list

Fiog. 4

Click a thread menu icon and click "Assess Student":

Bontonvillo
bentonvine .
Available until Saturday, January 2	5, 2020 3:26 PM EST 🥊 Includes assessmen	ıt.
T Subscribed
Discuss the impact of this ba well as any others you find o	ttle on the war. Consider military, e r know of.	economic, political impacts as
Add a description	Edit Thread
Discussion Board Partic	Assess Student
	Mark All Posts as Read
Start a New Thread	Mark All Posts as Unread
Filter by: All Threads 🗸	Flag Thread
	Pin Thread
Hello ~	View Post History
	Copy Thread
Another bloody mess	Print Thread
0 0 0 Unread Replies View	Delete Thread
Another thread	~
student jim posted Feb 18, 2019 2:1	5 PM Transformed

You will get the student scoring window (Fig. 3) with the students posts, a grading box, feedback entry box and any rubric associated (as shown above). Again, either "Publish" to transfer score to gradebook or "Save Draft" for later publishing.