UNG Academic Advising Mission Statement:

The mission of academic advising is to assist students in constructing meaningful educational plans based on their interests and abilities and consistent with each student's academic, professional, and personal goals. Academic advising fosters the development of students who are self-directed, responsible decision-makers and supports the successful completion of degree requirements.

Departmental Goal for Advising:

The goal for advising in the Mathematics Department is to support each advisee in planning and following the appropriate curriculum for his or her degree. To achieve this goal, advisors will work with students to:

- Identify the degree program that best fits the career goals of the student;
- Promote student awareness of options within the degree for minors and upper level electives;
- Ensure that students take responsibility for knowing and understanding the requirements of the planned program of study;
- Assist in the development of a semester-by-semester plan to help each advisee stay on track with the chosen plan of study; and
- Encourage each student to meet his or her personal, professional and academic goals.

Students are responsible for coordinating with advisors to ensure all requirements are completed in the timeframe desired.
