The BFA in Design & Technology for Theatre degree program consists of a one hundred twenty (120) semester hour sequence designed to meet the educational employment requirements of workers in theatrical design and the entertainment technology industry (film, dance, TV, etc.). It is a comprehensive degree with 78 credits in design for theatre, theatre history, foundational courses and theatre electives. An additional 42 credits are taken in Areas A-E core curriculum course work. The areas of study for this degree are technical direction, costume technology, stage management, lighting design, costume design, scenic design and sound design. (A minimum of 39 credits in 3000- and 4000-level courses in the major are required)

Program Completion Requirements

1. Admitted to the program by letter of acceptance from Gainesville Theatre Alliance and Theatre Department at the University of North Georgia.

2. Successful Completion of courses required in degree program (minimum 120 credit hours).

3. Successful completion of minimum 42 general education credits (Core Requirements) according to distribution established by UNG.

4. Successful completion of at least 39 credit hours of upper division coursework (3000 level and higher) in the major.

5. Successful completion of ALL coursework within the Major with a grade of C or higher.

6. Successful completion of a Senior Exit Interview (THEA 4900) with a grade of C or higher.

7. Theatre 1010 is repeatable for up to 12 credit hours. THEA 3010 is repeatable for up to 6 credit hours (3 sections of THEA 1010 prerequisite).

8. The productions, and all associated work, of the Gainesville Theatre Alliance are an integral part of the educational experience provided by the degree program. THEA 1010 and 3010 classwork is task-driven and time outside of class time may be necessary to accomplish assigned tasks on which the class grade is based. It is expected that all BFA for Design and Technology for Theatre students will spend additional time, outside of class time (THEA1010 & THEA 3010), in production activities.

9. Meet all other UNG and Department of Theatre graduation requirements.
